

FAMILY HEIRLOOM RAFFLE INSTRUCTIONS

1. The purpose of this document is to establish the Rules for the Family Heirloom Raffle and to provide the players of the game with an entry form. Should you have any questions, contact Keith, Jr. at email address keithramsey@att.net. (In all cases, I have identified myself as “Keith, Jr.” to avoid confusing anyone with my son or grandson.) My phone number is 661-977-1145. You may call if you prefer.

2. The game began when the Family Branch Coordinators received an email message from me describing the general rules for the game. I designated some member of each major Branch of the “family” as the “Coordinator” whose function was to notify (invite) siblings and children of that branch concerning the game. Those that don’t care to play are “excused.” Those that have chosen to play have gone to the website and have downloaded this document.

3. The “Family” eligible for this game include the following surnamed families:

- a. Fred Smith’s descendants;
- b. James Durrett’s descendants;
- c. Guy Davis’ descendants;
- d. Ron Mosher’s descendants. (Joann’s children)

4. All the prizes offered by lottery drawings are pictured on the website (<http://etcetera.one/heirlooms.html>). The raffle will be conducted on May 29, 2018 to give time for dissemination of the invitations by the Family Branch Coordinators and others in the family line. This means that you need to make your selections and complete the Entry Form attached. Have it in to me on or before 23 May. Please fill out the top of the form for the game and if you have no objections complete the genealogical data portion as well so that I can add to my Family Tree file.

HOW THE LOTTERY WILL WORK

5. You should think of the table in which you are to fill in on the entry form as “tickets.” You may select 13 items in the order of your priorities for each of the items, or you might use more than one “ticket” on a given item to increase your odds of winning the item. That means if there is a particular item you want, you could put the one item identifier (ID) in all 13 boxes! Or you could split it many ways such as five on one item, six on another and three on another. But no more than 13 total.

6. When an entry is received, I will make out “tickets” in the name of the entrant. If the entrant has a different item ID in all the boxes, that entrant’s name will be placed on one ticket. If the entrant has multiple boxes with the same ID, that entrant will have multiple tickets made in his or he name. The total number of such tickets will equal the maximum number of boxes marked with one ID.

7. The “draw” for each item will be done in the following manner: All those interested in the item will have one ticket with the entrant’s name on it for each time the item number occurs on the entry form submitted by the that individual. Those that have identified 13 different items will have one ticket in the “pot,” while those with multiple numbers will have multiple tickets in the “pot.”

8. In the event that there are any items not identified for an draw, a ticket for all entries will be put in the “pot” and a draw will be made for the “left-overs” and a winner identified. When the winners are notified, a person winning a ”left-over” may decline the item and it will be announced to be claimed by anyone desiring it.

FAMILY HEIRLOOM RAFFLE INSTRUCTIONS

9. I will package and ship all items — hopefully within two weeks and will coordinate shipping with the winners before doing so. If there are situations where it is practicable to ship items to more than one winner in a single box, I would like to do so to save time packing and shipping charges. This possibility will be raised when I coordinate with winners.

10. Most of the items are silver plate and a few may be a bit tarnished. The tarnish comes off relatively easily using a good cleaner. In many cases, I have cleaned them and will do some more before shipping, but if time does not permit cleaning all items, I hope you will understand.

11. That's All Folks! PRINT the Entry form, fill it out send it in to me via email soon! If you have questions email me (keithramsey@att.net) or call (661-977-1145)
